REPORT ON
FDP- Avishkar Guidance Session

Date: - 4 November, 2022

The Faculty Development Program Committee- FDP had organized an Avishkar Guidance Session on 4 November, 2022. The guest speaker for this session was Dr. Rajesh Vishnu Yeole, HOD of Department of English in Changu Kana Thakur College, New Panvel and with teaching experience of more than 25 years.

The prime motive behind organizing this session was to make the teachers and students understand how to write a research paper, especially for Avishkar. The session began at 9.30 am in the morning in which Dr. Yeole gave a brief introduction about research. He discussed the best practices to strengthen communication skills. He enlightened the crowd, focused more on how to guide the students for Avishkar and discussed all his knowledge and wisdom with the help of a PowerPoint presentation in which he had explained the various concepts of a research paper in a very elaborate manner. He discussed the various important aspects that are included in the process of writing a research paper.

He primarily guided the teachers and students on how to write an abstract with the help of the hypothesis statement and how to write a research paper overall. At the end, there was a question-and-answer session where the teachers got a chance to clarify their doubts. The session came to an end by 12.00 pm. The information shared was very helpful and informative. Over all, it was a very informative session with a very enthusiastic crowd.

REPORT ON "ANUSHRUTI: Research Convention"

Date: 03/2/2023

The IQAC of Sanpada College of Commerce and Technology has organized one-day Research Convention, "ANUSHRUTI (A path to creativity)" for the students of all seven departments. The objective of this competition is to inculcate the research culture among the students and encourage them further to convert their ideas into physical reality. To keep the research at the priority, the students should be enthused to engage themselves in the research. Through detailed research, students develop critical thinking expertise as well as effective analytical, investigation and communication skills that are globally sought-after and incredibly beneficial.

With the view of promoting research among the students, the IQAC had conducted a workshop for the students who had registered for the competition. The workshop was conducted by Ms. Bhupinder Kaur, Research scholar, Pillai College of Art, and Commerce on 10th January 2023 in the seminar Hall. The objective of the workshop is to give clear understanding to the students about the concept of research and the methodology of research process. Students from all seven departments participated in the workshop. Total of sixty-two groups of three students in a group participated in the workshop. A followup session was conducted on 16th January 2023 in Room 501 with the objective to discuss about the topics that the students have decided and how to go about with the presentation and collection of data. Total of thirty-two groups of three students in a group who were short listed, participated in the workshop. Each department was allocated with a guide who were monitoring and guiding the students in their PPT presentation and poster making.

"ANUSHRUTI: Research Convention" was conducted on 28th January 2023 at 11.30 am in Room 507. The Chief Guest and the Judge for the competition was Dr. Raghavendra Bendigeri, PhD Guide, Associate Professor, Oriental Institute of Management. The format for the competition was adopted from "Avishkar Research Convention," conducted by University of Mumbai. Twenty groups from all seven departments participated in the competition and exhibited their research skills through PPT and Posters. Certificates and medals were given to the winner of the competition.

The chief guest appreciated the concept of the research competition and motivated to give more such platform for the students to exhibit their research concepts. The event came with a formal vote of thanks at 4.00 pm.
