

Report

“Marathi Rajbhasha Diwas”

27th Feb, 2016

27th Feb 2016 is celebrated as the Marathi Rajbhasha Diwas on large scale throughout the world. Every year this day is celebrated as Marathi Bhasha Diwas on account of Marathi Literature Icon's Birth Anniversary Shri Vaman Vishnu Shirwadkar. He was a famous Marathi poet, writer, artist, lyricist, etc. Kusumagraj as famously known was also Gyanapeeth award winner, one of the most prestigious awards of the Government of India. The day is already being celebrated by many organizations across the world, including all the departments of University of Mumbai as well as other state universities.

Oriental Education Education Society's Sanpada College of Commerce and Technology celebrated Marathi Bhasha Diwas on 27TH February in Seminar Hall. Chief Guest for the function were Dr. F.A. Shaikh, (Principal SCCT) and Nusrat Ali Hashmi, (Principal, Law College)

The Seminar Hall was beautifully decorated with pataka, toran, flowers, and rangoli at the entrance. The college staff was dressed with traditional sarees, fetas and kurtas. The function started with lighting of the lamp by the Principal Dr. F.A.Shaikh. Principal Sir gave the importance of the language in his speech; also the rich history of the language was addressed.

On this occasion the college arranged Cloth donation programme. College had called an NGO Helping Hand Foundation who would distribute these collected clothes to the needy and poor sections of the society.

Magazine Inauguration “CONFLUENCE” was held along with the event. This was the first edition of the magazine published by the College.

Skits in Marathi were performed by the college students on different themes. The college crowd was overwhelmed with joy while watching the outstanding performances and different funny moments in the skit.

Prof. Lakshmichaya Kale was the chief organizer of the event. Cloth donation program was arranged by Prof. Akram Pathan. Prof. Nishat Ahmed was the head of Magazine committee.

The main motto of this event was that the new generation must understand the importance of the language. To keep its heritage alive among college students, this day is celebrated.