

STREET PLAY 15th August, 2015

After the celebration of Independence Day Sanpada college Of Commerce & Technology, degree college students performed street play at the Sanpada Railway station. The title was “Cruelty Against Trees” which was a part of “Environmental Awareness Campaign”. The whole play was based on how we are degrading our environment and what steps to be taken to protect the environment. To convey their message effectively they used a slogan “Paryawaran ka rakho dhyan, tabhi banega desh mahan ! ( If you want to make your country great, you must care of our environment ). The script was written by B.COM head of the department Prof. Sushil S. Jadhav and acted by a group of 15 students.
